

Share buyback for cancellation

Paris, May 7, 2025

On May 7, 2025, Safran (Euronext Paris: SAF) has entered into an agreement with an investment services provider for a tranche of share buyback for cancellation. Under the terms of this agreement, Safran will repurchase its own shares (ISIN FR0000073272) for a maximum amount of Euro 500 million from May 8, 2025 and no later than July 18, 2025. This operation will be carried out in accordance with the authorization relating to share buybacks granted on May 23, 2024 by the shareholders' General Meeting, then, as the case may be, in accordance with the new authorization that will be submitted to the vote of the shareholders' General meeting on May 22, 2025.

This operation comes in the context of the Euro 5 billion share buyback for cancellation, to be carried out from 2025 to 2028⁽¹⁾, announced by Safran on the occasion of its Capital Markets Day held on December 5, 2024. A first tranche of this plan was executed from January to April 2025 for an amount of 350 million Euros. In addition, in April 2025, Safran reallocated for cancellation existing treasury shares representing a market value of 50 million Euros.

⁽¹⁾ Subject to annual General Meetings' approval.
