

Main Organizations to which Safran contributes

(non exhaustive)

Safran is an active member in a number of collective, industry or topic-based initiatives to strengthen ethics and integrity practices and has established its international reputation as a responsible company.

- (i) The International Forum of Business Ethical Conduct (IFBEC), of which it is one of the twelve Strategy Committee Members. This organization is made up of leading US and European companies in the aerospace and defense sectors, and promotes industry-wide ethical standards and good business practices through the Global Principles on Business Ethics, which have been signed by Safran's Executive Management;
- (ii) Argentina B20 which of which Safran is Vice-Chair of the Responsible Business Conduct & Anti-Corruption Cross-Thematic Group;
- (iii) MEDEF (the French employers' association), of which Safran is the Chair of the OECD's Guidelines and International Ethics Committee;
- (iv) The Business and Industry Advisory Committee (BIAC) to the OECD, of which Safran is Vice-Chair of the anti-corruption task force;
- (v) CEA ('Cercle Ethique des Affaires' linked to the European Business Ethics network) of which Safran is a Board member;
- (vi) The Ethics and Compliance Committees of GIFAS, ASD, ICC and AFEP along with the Association of European Compliance Officers.

updated : 26/01/2018