

PRESS RELEASE

Safran signs a NacelleLife™ service contract with Air Greenland for its Airbus A330neo nacelle fleet

Gonfreville l'Orcher, France, October 19th, 2022

Safran Nacelles has signed with Air Greenland a 12-year agreement for the support of the nacelles of their Airbus A330neo.

Air Greenland will benefit from OEM* guaranteed Maintenance, Repair and Overhaul (MRO) solutions at Safran Nacelles repair station in Pont Audemer, France and will have access to a Safran Nacelles' shared pool of nacelles end-items.

« Safran Nacelles is delighted to partner with Air Greenland to support their A330neo nacelle fleet » stated Alain Berger, Safran Nacelles' Executive Vice President of Customer Support & Services. « We are fully committed to delivering services that meet the airlines' MRO and spares needs. »

Air Greenland's Technical Director Jørn Elfving Rasmussen explained: « We are entering the Airbus A330neo to our fleet. Our priority is providing best-in-class service to our customers. The support and expertise of the nacelle OEM ensures to keep our aircraft in operation with the highest level of quality. »

Safran Nacelles' repair services and spares resources are part of the company's NacelleLife™ support program, which ensures responsive, cost effective and high-quality services that keep airliners in operational condition while minimizing costs.
