

PRESS RELEASE

Bernard Barussaud appointed Executive VP Operations

16 May 2019, Bordes

Safran Helicopter Engines has appointed Bernard Barussaud as Executive Vice-President Operations. Bernard succeeds François-Xavier Foubert who has been appointed to another position within the Group.

Bernard Barussaud (52) joined the Snecma¹ engineering department in 1992. From 1995 he fulfilled various management roles within the manufacturing department -- manufacturing support, fan disk manufacturing -- before in 2002 being appointed Head of Management Control at the Corbeil plant. Later he served as Head of Services Cost Estimates Department at Snecma Services¹. In 2011 he was appointed Director of the Snecma¹ Manufacturing Excellence Center for compressor blades.

Since 2016, Bernard has served as EVP Manufacturing at Safran Transmissions Systems.

Bernard Barussaud is a graduate of Polytech Orléans (1990).
