

WHY UNDUCTED ENGINES ARE MORE ENERGY-EFFICIENT

An unducted engine is one of the keys to CFM International's* RISE technology demonstration program, designed to make tomorrow's aircraft more sustainable. This type of engine aims to reduce CO<sub>2</sub> emissions by at least 20% by 2035.

*CFM International is a 50/50 joint company between Safran Aircraft Engines and GE Aerospace.