

Postponement of the half-year results publication date to April 28, 2017

Plaisir, April 14, 2017 – Zodiac Aerospace announces the postponement of its half year results publication date regarding the period from September 1, 2016 to February 28, 2017, originally scheduled on April 20, 2017. The new publication date is April 28, 2017.

This postponement is explained by an unusual workload linked to ongoing discussions with Safran as part of the merger project between Safran and Zodiac Aerospace announced on January 19, 2017. An update on this project will be made at the time of the half-yearly results publication.
